3.1 Responding to Requests

(1) The duty to create a record from a machine readable record in the custody or under the control of the City using its normal computer hardware and software and technical expertise if creating the record would not unreasonably interfere with the operations of the City;

(2) The power to respond to a request except where, in the opinion of the City Clerk, the Head has the discretion under the Act to determine whether a record shall be released or withheld from disclosure;

(3) The power to respond to a request after the Head has made a decision regarding the disclosure or non-disclosure of a record;

(4) The power to refuse in a response to confirm or deny the existence of:

   a) a record containing information described in Section 15 of the Act (information harmful to law enforcement); or

   b) a record containing personal information of a third party if disclosure of the existence of the information would be an unreasonable invasion of that party's personal privacy.

(5) The duty to:

   a) provide an applicant with a copy of a record or part of a record with a response where the record can reasonably be reproduced; or

   b) to give reasons for the delay in providing the record.
3.2 Extension of Time

(2) The power to apply to the Commissioner for a longer time period for response to a request where:

   a) the applicant does not give enough detail to enable the City to identify a requested record;

   b) a large number of records is requested or must be researched and meeting the time limit would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the City;

   c) more time is needed to consult with a third party or other public body before the City can decide whether or not to give the applicant access to a requested record; or

   d) a third party asks for a review under Section 52(2) or 62(2) of the Act.

(3) The power to tell the applicant the reason for an extension, when a response can be expected and that the applicant may complain about the extension under Section 42(2)(b) or 60(1)(a) of the Act where the time for a response to a request has been extended under Section 10(1) of the Act.

   a) the record was produced by or for the other public body;

   b) the other public body was the first to obtain the record; or

   c) the record is in the custody or under the control of the other public body.

(2) The power to notify the applicant of the transfer.

3.4 Information to be Released Within 60 Days

(c) the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to:

(i) harm significantly the competitive position or interfere significantly with the negotiating position of the third party;

(ii) result in similar information no longer being supplied to the public body when it is in the public interest that similar information continue to be supplied;

(iii) result in undue financial loss or gain to any person or organization; or

(iv) reveal information supplied to, or the report of, an arbitrator, mediator, labour relations officer or other person or body appointed to resolve or inquire into a labour dispute.

(2) The duty to refuse to disclose to an applicant information that was collected on a tax return or gathered for the purpose of determining tax liability or collecting a tax.

(3) The duty set out in paragraphs (1) and (2) is subject to Section 21(3) of the Act which provides that the duty to refuse disclosure does not apply if a third party consents to the disclosure or the information is in a record that is in the custody or control of the British Columbia Archives and Records Service or the archives of a public body and that has been in existence for 50 or more years.

3.6 Notification

(1) The power to notify a third party that the City intends to give access to a record that the City Clerk has reason to believe contains information that might be excepted from disclosure under Section 21 (information harmful to business interests of a third party) or Section 22 (information harmful to personal privacy) of the Act.
(2) The power to give a notice under Section 23(1.2) of the Act where the City Clerk does not intend to give access to a record that contains information excepted from disclosure under Section 21 (information harmful to business interests of a third party) or Section 22 (information harmful to personal privacy) of the Act.
